"The ram-head works against a fixed toothed face, and, if there were nothing more, stones put into the hoper would be simply crushed between the two—much as a Blake's machine. But here the similarity ends. It has been found that what we may best term a chewing action materially facilitates the breakage of the mass, and this chewing action is obtained by mounting the ram-head and its thrust-bar or handle on an eccentric close to the head. The motion attained by the use of this ecentric produces the precise effect required very diciently. All the arrangements are very simple and mechanical, and the machine appears to have nothing about it to get out of order. We were much pleased with it." Sunday Trading. It is anything but a bad sign when men engaged in various pursuits begin to discuss among themselves the advisability of closing their places of business Sunday, and of resting on that day from their respective avocations. Several communications of late have appeared in local journals bearing upon this subject, and to-day we add another to the list by Mr. Thomas Chadwick, proprietor of the International Hotel, Yates street, Mr. Chadwick's remarks are meant particularly for that class of persons engaged in the same line of business with bimself, but they are also quite as applicable to persons engaged in other pursuits. Apart entirely from the moral and reliis open to serious objections. All work see suday JACKSON LAWERENCE. and no play, makes Jack a dull boy. No matter what pursuit a man is engaged in, whether it be physical or mental; or how sound and vigorous a constitu-tion he may possess, continuous labor seven days a week, kept up for long per-ieds of time, will impair his strength, undermine his system, and just as surely horten his days as that the sun shines. tended that man should be an incessant worker, or he would have increased his physical power of endurance at least one seventh more than it now is. When he ssued his decree that man should earn his bread by the sweat of his brow, he also decreed that one-seventh of his time should be set spart for rest, in order that he might recruit his was ed energies. It is therefore necessary, even in an economical point of view, that men should observe one day out of seven as a period of rest from the cares, perplexities, and wear and tear of labor, both mental and physical. As a rule, there is no excuse for Sunday trading in a small community like this; but even in exceptional cases. such as druggists, restauranteurs, and others we might name if necessary, by an observance of systematic rules much of the labor done on Sunday might be dispens ed with. Some years ago it was the on Sanday mornings from six till nine o'clock, and, as a matter of course, many people instead of laying in their supplies of meat on Saturday evening put off doing so tell Sanday morning. The butchers, however, finally agreed among themselves that they would ho among themselves that they would no longer open on Sanday morning, and the result is that people instead of buying on Sanday morning make their purchases on Saturday evening. Now, who will pretend to say they have lost anything by that arrangement? They don't sell an onnce less meat, and the fact is that both parties are better off by the change, in that the butcher is not required to open his place of business on Sunday, or his customers to make purchases, because they have attended to that matter the evening before. The same would be the case with every other branch of bus iness. Grocers and tobacconists would do no less business, nor would clothiers PUBLIC AUCTION sell a single garment less, by closing up their shops entirely on Sunday, than they now do by making voluntary slaves of themselves in trying to catch an occa-sional customer on that day. It is just because shops are open that people buy on that day; whereas, if it were well known that purchases could not be effected on Sunday, they would take very good care to supply their wants the evening previously. We hope, therefore, to see some action on the part of the business men of this city taken with s view to doing away with needless traffic on Sundays. Of all branches of trade, we think those engaged in the retail liquor trame should be foremost in such a movement. As a class they devote longer hours to business each day than any other, and we should imagine they would hail with delight any arrangement that would release them from labor on Bunday, that they might have that day wholly to themselves for rest and becoming recreation. We are very certain this community would suffer no serious inconvenience by such an arrangement, while those who are all the week penned up behind the bar would be immense gainers by the opportunity it—vould afford them of breathing a purer atmosphere than is usually to be found within the precincts of a saloon. We know there are many men like Mr Chadwick, who would much prefer spending their Sabbaths with their wives and families than in their bar-rooms; and if these men will only movement. As a class they devote bar-rooms; and if these men will only take the matter carnestly in hand, we bebar-rooms; and if these men will only take the matter carnestly in hand, we believe there are very few respectable in all to branches also heartily enter into any scheme that would not heartily enter into any scheme that would relieve them of the necessity of doing

Supreme Court of British Columbia

GENERAL ORDER

HERRAS by "The Supreme Court Fees Ordi-nance, 1870," it is among other things enacted that it shall be lawful for the Chief Justice of the Suprems ourt of British Columbia, from time to time, and at any time thereafter, to make all such General Rules and court of British Columbia, from time to time, and at any time thereafter, to make all such General Rules and Orders, as to him may seem advisable, for altering the then authorities Schedule of Fees, and for fixing the Coste and Fees to be allowed and taken in any action or other proceeding, either at low or in equity, or otherwise howsoever, in the said Supreme Court. And also, from time to time, to make such different scale or gaines of such Costs, Fees, and Allowances, or any of them, for different sortions of the Colony of British Columbia, as to him may appear becomeny or advisable. And it was furthen provided that no such alteration should have any validity until upproved by the Governor, and published during one calendar month in the Government Gaselle.

And whereas by virtue and in execution of the authority by the said recited Ordinance in me vested 1, the undersigned Maximus Balling Busing, fild on the 2nd June, $70, make a teneral Order, which was duly approved and published, thereby fixing the rates of Costs and Fees referred to in the said recited Ordinance; and in conformity with the intention intimated in and by such ordinance. I did, by the 2nd Section of the said central Order, deduce that (unless specially excepted) all the same and fees chargeable and taken in litigation in England) should be deemed fixed with reference only to baliness transacted and the parts of the then Colony between Booke, Nanaimo, and Yale; and that for business transacted beyond these places, one-half additional might be demanded and taken; and that for business transacted beyond these places, one-half additional might be demanded and taken; and that for business transacted beyond these places, one-half additional might be demanded and taken; and that for business transacted in the parts of the then Colony between Booke, Nanaimo, and Yale; and that for business transacted in the parts of the then Colony between Booke, Nanaimo, and Yale; and that for business transacted in the parts of the then Colony between Booke, Nana

And where as be "afthe County Count Ordinance, light," it was smoon office things enacted that the Judge's or Judges of the Supreme Court should, from time to time, regulate the scale of fees to be taken in County Courts, subject to confirmation by the Governor.

And on the said 2nd June, 1870, by another General Order, issuedunder the authority of such last mentioned Ordinance, and under the hands of us the undersigned, Matthew Baillie Begbes, and Heavy Pacing Pellew Crease, a new scale of Fees and Costs, was established to County Court matters; and it was in and by section 4 of such General Order, provided that as to the different parts of the Colony the same proportionate arrangement was to be followed as was directed in the said recited General Order of even date therewith, in reference to the Fees in the Supreme Courts

And whereas he 'Estaken in the Supreme Court and County Courts, should be reduced to the 'same scale as the Fees taken in the corresponding Courts on England'

And whereas much Resolution is understood to express a revocation of the intention intimated by the former Legislature as to the increased rates to be taken in the remoter parts of the of the Province.

Now, therefore, as to the Supreme Court Fees, I, Matthew Baillie Begbie, and Henry Pering Pellew Crease the Justices of the said Supreme Court, do order, and as to County 'court Fees, I, Matthew Baillie Begbie, and Henry Pering Pellew Crease the Justices of the said Supreme Court, do order, and as to County 'court Fees, I, Matthew Baillie Begbie, and Henry Pering Pellew Crease the Justices of the said Supreme Court, do order, and as to County 'court Fees, I, Matthew Baillie Begbie, and Henry Pering Pellew Crease the Justices of the said Supreme Court, do order and said beceloner recited General Order and Lound Begbie, and Henry Pering Pellew Crease the Justices of the said Bupreme Court, do order and said beceloner recited General Order and Lound Begbie, Legal Begbie, Chief Justice of the said Supreme Court, do order and said Begbie, the Justices of the said Supreme Court, do order as follows, viz:—

Section 2 of the said hereinbefore recited General Order of the 2nd June, 1870, touching the Fees in the Supreme Court, and Section 4 of the said recited General Order of the same date, touching the Fees in the County Courts, are hereby respectively discharged and cancelled, so fer as they relate to the Fees of Court, which under and by virtue of the said hereinbefore recited Ordinance and General Orders, or cither of them, or under or by virtue of any now valid Legislative enectment, or Order of Court, are now liable to be paid into the Provincial Tressury.

Public Opinion in Canada on In dependence.

[From the London Economist.] The difficulties arising out of the Alabama Treaty will apparently have the indirect y beneficial result of hastening a grave recon-aderation both in Canada and here of the highly art ficial nature of the prese, t nominal connection between surselves and the Domin ion. For all practical interests and purposes Canada has been for twenty years entirely Canada has been for twenty years entirely independent, and so have the small r nonneed the whole vote, 714; necessary for Provinces—Nova Scotia, New Branswick and British Columbia—now happily united to ber by the wise Confederation Act of 1868. The people of these countries—they are no longer Colonies in any intelligible sense—most properly manage their own affairs by means of a perliamentary government, which are not almost unanimously. f a parliamentary government, which exer cises supreme control in every matter except the conclusion of treaties with foreign Powers, the making of peace and war, and the ap ointment of the high officer sent from this side and called the Governor General dthough as regards even him the Canadia Legislature by voting his salary can in effect get rid of a man unpopular or e nexious.
The French population of Lower Canada is becoming of less and less consequence, and from the port of Hulifax, on one side of the continent to the port of Victoria on the other side, the nearly five millions of people are essectively British in origin and instinct, with th energy and foresight which pre-eminent y new region. The natural allies of Canada West of Lake Erie. To these States the St. Lawrence is the shortest, best and cheapest outlet to the Eu opean markets with which they exchange their raw produce of grain and provisions for manufactures and Eastern and tropical commodities.

It is not the least merit of Mr. Lowe that for several years past he has lost no fitting opportunity of insisting on these plain facts and these new conditions. For a British and Colonial force to attempt the defence of the thousand miles of Canadian frontier against MEETING .- I. O. of G. T. will hold a meet- such armies as the Americans could send and only capable of ending, at the utmost, twenty or thirty thousand men, and an twenty or thirty thousand men, and an antagonist whose territory stretches within forty miles on Montreal, and within even shorter distances of several of the more important Western cities, and farther, wielding a population of forty millions. Sir Alander Galt, one of the most prudent and respected of Canadan statesmen, did not hesitate some years ago to take up this line of reasoning in the Canadan Parliament, and place himself at the head of an Independent Party—not out of disloyalty to England, but in obed ence to the plate necessities of the case. This party has already made solid progress, and the events of the last two months have strengthened it greatly. In proof of this, the writer quotes an article proof of this, the writer quotes an article which appeared recently in the Quebec Chronicle, on which he comments as follows: "No language or reasoning can be more to the purpose than this article. As the writer says, Canada does not desire annexation to the United States; but she desires indepen-dence and neutrality. If England was once fairly off the American Continent as a Sovereign Power, the merican soreness and jealousy would be allayed, and the two remaining Republics would be left to grow together—the one secure in its overpowering strength, and the other secure in its neutral attitude. It is probable that some tariff arrangement in the nature of a sollverein would be set up between the two countries, and the common use of rivers, lakes, fisheries; canals and railways, would, of course, be adopted from the outset.
Until this Canadian difficulty be settled, the peace and commerce of the world will be in jeopardy. Is there no member of Parliament exercising influence by reason of his charac-ter, moderation and good sense, who will bring the subject before the House of Com-mons in a manner befitting its delicacy and importance? It requires the gravity and wisdom of some duplicate Sir Roundell

From Balifax to the Pacific.

Our friends in the county of Pontiac, whose spare lands have been devoted to a considerable extent to the promotion of the Northern railway lines, seem to be feeling somewhat aggrieved just now at the express-ed intention of the Northern Colonisation Rier with their line at Hull, next Ottawa city, giving the go-by to Ayimer and all the country on the north shere of the Ottawa from hull to Deep River. If our readers will refer to their maps, they will probably think it a strange view to take of the general requirements of the grand line, as forward is wholly impossible and not capacity of serious argument. The contest would be between four and a half millions of Colonists, assisted by a power thousands of miles away sure as the Pacific Railway. The traffic must run nearly in a direct line as equity and engineering can render possible. The good people of Postiac may take heart from this view. They will do well also to throw a share of their energies into the development of the new city of Albert, already referred to; and as concerns their own section of the railway. Senator Skead, with the hearty views he entertains of the Ottawa railey as a home for immigrants, as well as our President of the Quebec North Shore italiway, if his engagements should permit, might be able to afford valu ble counsel, or at any rate the encouragement of patience to our brethren of Postiac.—Gasette.

Holloway's Ointenst and Pills.—The Best Way.—To gain any end there are often may ways, but there is always a best way. This statement applies with wonderful force to Holloway's remedies, which overcome ill-health by driving nozious matter from the frame, by repairing broken or injured structures, and by establishing regularity of action. This is the only safe and feasible method of combating diseases and securing sound health. With pure blood, good digestion, strong nerves, and perfect functional order mateualdies may be vanquished, and strength surely re-established. The balsamic and healing qualities of Holloway's Ointment render it invaluable in the nursery for healing cuts, scratches, and sores, for allaying inflammations, reducing swellings, and cleansing unhealthy skins.
